FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

- What's the best age to start Irish Dancing?

Each child is different and it is up to the parents if they feel a child is ready. Bringing your child along to a class prior to enrolling is a great way for both of you to see what is involved.

- What should dancers wear to classes?

Dancers are encouraged to wear bare feet, sneakers or ballet/jazz pumps to class. Dancers should wear shorts/leggings so that correct technique can be addressed and easily move their legs.

- Can parents/caregivers watch the classes?

For the first term of your dancer's enrolment with the Academy, parents are allowed to watch. After their first term we ask parents/care givers to utilise our waiting areas in both studios.

- How long are the classes for new dancers and what can we expect?

Little Jiggers - A 30 minute lesson which includes activities that teach right and left, games to learn technique and exercises which progress onto the school beginner's classes.

Beginners 6 years + - A 45 minute lesson which progresses through exercises and techniques whilst learning their first steps towards a single reel.

- How much are beginner's classes?

Your first lesson with the Academy is FREE - then for the remainder of your first term you pay per lesson. This allows dancers to get used to the class structures and see if this is something they wish to continue.

- When does my child need the Academy uniform and Irish dancing shoes?

Dancers who have been dancing with the academy for for at least 2 terms should to purchase the uniform. Compulsory uniform is an Academy t-shirt (supplied with your registration) and shorts. After the first term Irish dancing shoes should be brought. We have second hand shoes available for sale at the studio.

- When can my child/dancer compete?

Dancers are encouraged to complete a year of classes before deciding to pursue competitive Irish Dancing. This is also at discretion of the principals of the Academy. The Academy holds at least two in class competitions for dancers to gain confidence on stage along with our bi annual end of year show and have goals with their dancing through out the year.
